Pitchboard: Portfolio website

Short elevator pitch: I am a game developer, rehearsed in C#, and with a background in 3d art creation.

Long elevator pitch: I am looking to break ground in the realm of game development and expand my current knowledge. I can accomplish menial tasks such as office work, while also completing work in the field of programming or art. I am a certified Microsoft office Master for the 2016 suite.

Personas: 2-3

Employers (Hideo) – Well known leader in the game development industry. Looking for new talent and possibly a new take on how to accomplish something. Wants enthusiasm and a level of professionality.

Competition (Noah) – Looking for ideas on how to structure his work. Looking for and idea of what he is competing against for a job. Possible friend later if we make a good impression.

Competitive/Comparative Analysis: 2-3
